Robbery at Atlantic Union Bank Ends in Arrest

Caroline County, Virginia - On January 15, 2021 at approximately 9:55 a.m., the Caroline County Sheriff's Office 9-1-1 Center received a call that the Atlantic Union Bank, located on Main Street in Bowling Green, had just been robbed. The Sheriff's Office deputies, investigators, and Bowling Green Police Department responded and arrived quickly on scene. It was reported that the suspect passed a note to the teller demanding money, no weapon was displayed nor was anyone injured during the transaction.

Investigators began their on-scene investigation immediately while patrol deputies, administrative staff, and the Chief of Bowling Green began to canvass the area. Within the hour, the CCSO was able to develop a suspect and shortly after, the suspect was taken into custody.

Upon collection of evidence, Sgt. K. H. Eichenmiller charged 60 year old Tommy Randell George, of Ruther Glen, with Bank Robbery.

Sheriff Lippa stated, "The quick response of deputies and Bowling Green PD, along with a cooperative effort amongst all produced a successful conclusion of this type of crime. I am so proud of the men and women of this office for their dedicated efforts to keep Caroline and the Town of Bowling Green safe."
